Are any consequential losses required? Consequential loss cover can often be included to protect against delays during construction of a development or to cover a tenant. Typically, these cover a specified time period and protect against an interim order and temporary losses whilst either the problem is being resolved or up to a final order is made. These can include:

- Delay Costs/Contractual obligations during construction
- Rental Obligations (annual figure)
- Loss of Profit (annual figure)
- Relocation Costs (potential physical cost of moving - not fit-out)

Please give a full explanation of the risk(s) to be covered. If easier to discuss over the telephone, please call us on 0151 255 2610 and we can chat through with you:
